President Droupadi Murmu meets King Charles III at Queen's funeral in London

President Draupadi Murmu along with other global leaders attended the state funeral of Queen Elizabeth II at Westminster. After arriving at the Westminster Hall, she offered tributes to Queen Elizabeth II. World leaders from American President Joe Biden to French President Emmanuel Macron joined members of the public in observing two-minute silence in memory of Queen Elizabeth II as the funeral service ended here with the recitation of "God Save the King", the reworded national anthem today.

Women's corporation signs MoU with British Council

Tamil Nadu Corporation for Development of Women (TNCDW) on Friday entered into a Memorandum of Understanding (MoU) with the British Council to homogenise and streamline the curriculum for the English and soft skills training that the former is providing through different organisations.. . The women's corporation is providing skill development training to youth from rural areas in the 15-35 age group under the Union government's Deen Dayal Upadhyaya Grameen Kaushalya Yojana (DDY - GKY) scheme in a bid to help them get employment.

A release from the organisation said that around 130 private training institutes have been engaged across Tamil Nadu to offer short-term training in 80 different areas. The MoU with the British Council will help in streamlining the curriculum and methodology used for English and soft skills training offered by these organisations. The exercise is being taken up under the National Rural Economic Transformation Project (NRETP) being executed with the World Bank support. The release added that around 40,000 youths will benefit this year from the revised training programme.

Navaratri idols start journey from Padmanabhapuram Palace..

Procession will reach Thiruvananthapuram on Sunday after overnight stopovers at Kuzhithurai and Neyyattinkara. The procession of idols as part of the Navaratri festival set out from Padmanabhapuram Palace at Thuckalay in Kanyakumari district to Thiruvananthapuram on Friday in an atmosphere of religious fervour.

While the idol of Saraswathi Devi was carried atop an elephant, those of Munnoottinanga and Kumaraswamy were carried in palanquins. Earlier, Kerala Devaswom Minister K. Radhakrishnan handed over the ceremonial sword to Tamil Nadu Minister P.K. Sekhar Babu and Tamil Nadu Hindu Religious and Charitable Endowments Commissioner J. Kumaragurubaran at the palace to mark the ritual heralding the procession. The idol of Saraswathi Devi will be kept at the mandapam at the eastern gate of the Sri Padmanabhaswamy temple for the duration of the Navaratri festival, while the idol of Kumaraswamy will be kept at the Devi temple, Aryasala, and that of Munnoottinanga at the Chenthitta temple.

Fresh COVID-19 cases breach 500-mark in T.N.

26 districts logged fresh infections; Chennai accounted for almost half of the active cases

After nearly four months, fresh COVID-19 cases exceeded 500 in Tamil Nadu on Thursday, taking the active caseload past the 2,000-mark, with Chennai alone accounting for almost half of the active cases. A total of 552 persons tested positive in the State. The last time the State recorded over 500 cases was on February 25 (507 cases). The fresh cases were reported in 26 of the 38 districts.

Chennai saw a marginal rise in fresh infections, compared to its previous day tally, with 253 positive cases. Chengalpattu reported 129 fresh infections. There were 32 cases in Coimbatore and Kancheepuram each and 30 in Tiruvallur. Kanniyakumari logged 14 fresh cases, while the remaining 20 districts had fewer than 10 cases each. Three returnees from Singapore, the U.S. and West Bengal were among those who tested positive in the State. The State's tally of fresh cases stood at 34,58,997. There were no deaths due to COVID-19. A total of 177 persons were discharged after treatment, taking the total number of recoveries to 34,18,658.

The number of active cases rose to 2,313. Of these, Chennai accounted for 1,139 active cases followed by Chengalpattu (472). There were 139 active cases in Coimbatore, 113 in Tiruvallur and 92 in Kancheepuram. The State's overall positivity rate stood at 3.6%. A total of 15,292 samples were tested. According to Wednesday's data, Chengalpattu accounted for the highest positivity rate in the State at 9.8%. The Nilgiris followed with 9.1%. Chennai had a positivity rate of 8.1%, Coimbatore and Ranipet logged 4.0%. A total of 118 beds were occupied in COVID-19 health centres and hospitals. Of these, Chennai accounted for 54 beds. COVID-19 vaccines were administered to 43,548 persons on Thursday, taking the coverage of government vaccination centres alone to 11,03,68,218. Among those vaccinated were 21,633 persons aged 18-44. Precautionary doses were administered to 12,16,833 persons till date.

Tamil Nadu: Private omni bus association releases fare chart

CHENNAI: Following numerous complaints about excess fares in omni buses, the Tamil Nadu Private Bus Owners Association (TNBOA) for the first time in recent years has released a fare chart.

Accordingly, buses which are a part of this association, will collect 2,050 to 3,310 for travelling between Chennai and Coimbatore depending on the bus category (seater/AC/sleeper etc). Fares between Madurai and Chennai will be in the range of 1,930 to 3,070. Meeting reporters on Wednesday, the association said the government can't fix fares for omni buses, which have contract carriage permits. The operator can fix the fare and it is up to the passengers to agree upon the rate proposed.

TNBOA general secretary A Afzal said, "We are yet to recover the losses incurred during the pandemic." Given the increase in fuel prices, toll plaza rates and taxes, it will be economically feasible only if the said rates were collected from the public, he said. Meanwhile, the state transport department has announced special buses for this festive season and began online booking of SETC buses for Diwali and Pooja holidays. Transport minister SS Sivashankar said 4,150 buses (including 2,050 special buses) will be operated between Chennai and other districts and 1,650 special buses will be run vice-versa on September 30 and October 1.

FARE CHART AT A GLANCE

ROUTE	MIN FARE (₹)	MAX FARE (₹)
Chennai to Coimbatore	2,050	3,310
Chennai to Madurai	1,930	3,070
Chennai to Tuticorin	2,320	3,810

CHENNAI...Periyar statue roundtana on Anna Salai to be redesigned CHENNAI

NEWSCITIESCHENNAI CHENNAI Periyar statue roundtana on Anna Salai to be redesigned

The cement concrete wall demolished. The size of the oblong feature has been reduced to provide smoother riding comfort and better visibility to motorists. The cement concrete wall around the Periyar statue roundtana on Anna Salai has been demolished. The Highways Department will make a fresh design for the roundtana at Periyar statue on Anna Salai. The size of the oblong feature has been reduced to provide smoother riding comfort and better visibility to motorists. The cement concrete wall that had come up in the middle of the busy road has been removed. This follows a report in these columns on September 4 about motorists being not comfortable with its size and shape. "Apart from the media report, there were complaints from the public as well as suggestions from the police stating that the roundtana was too huge and taking up too much space," said an official.

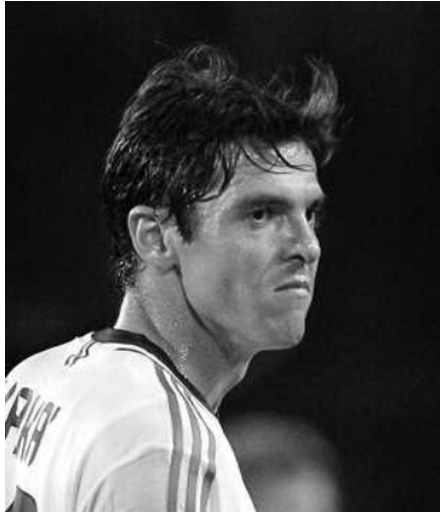

In the new design, less space would be taken up, a small pathway would be created inside the roundtana so that those coming to garland the statue can do so without any obstructions and the sayings on the plaques at the base can be read freely. Kannan, who crosses the junction daily to reach his place of work, said the removal of the wall was a welcome move. "It comes as a big relief. To go to Swami Sivananda Salai, one had to first swerve left and take a right and then take a slight swerve. We are not on some village road to take such swerves," he pointed out.

Farewell to cricket: Indian women gear up for memorable Lord's dance for legendary Jhulan

Harmanpreet Kaur and her team would leave no stone unturned to make it a fitting farewell for one of the 'poster girls' of Indian cricket.

Jhulan Goswami, a name synonymous with 'fast bowling' in women's cricket, will walk into her cricketing sunset at the Lord's on September 24, 2022 and the Indian team will strive to make it a memorable swansong for her by completing a historic ODI series clean sweep on English soil, at Lords in London.

Scoring a hundred or taking a five-for is a different high but bidding adieu to the game following an illustrious career at the 'Mecca of Cricket' is only reserved for a few chosen ones. Even Goswami's colleague for nearly 20 years, Mithali Raj, couldn't retire from a cricket field.

Brazilian footballer Kaka to make marathon debut in Berlin

Former World Cup-winning footballer Kaka will make his debut at the Berlin Marathon on Sunday, saying he was "just as excited as I used to be before football matches."

Former World Cup-winning footballer Kaka will make his debut at the Berlin Marathon on Sunday, saying he was "just as excited as I used to be before football matches." Kaka, who played for Real Madrid and AC Milan before retiring in 2017, said his father's struggle with Covid-19 had inspired him to run the marathon.

"He was 45 days in hospital," Kaka said at the Berlin marathon press conference on Friday. "Fortunately, he is with us today." Kaka's father and brother will take part in the "family experience" of the marathon.

"He's not going to run, he's just walking, but we wanted him in this experience with us - it's more of a family experience." Kaka said marathons were particularly special as sporting events because amateurs can take part side-by-side with professionals. "I'm very excited, of course, it's completely different than those guys (pointing to the professionals), this is something that is really good in marathons."

"As an amateur athlete, I can run and be in the same field as the professionals. "This is something really special in marathons - afterwards I can say that the best one in the marathon ran this time, and at the same time I was running with him." Kaka said he was hoping for a time under four hours. I want to run around 3 hours 40 minutes - if I feel good maybe I can do more," added the 2002 World Cup winner.

Golden Temple, Sripuram is located in Tamil Nadu Golden Temple, Sripuram

Golden Temple Vellore complex inside the Thirupuram spiritual park is situated at the foot of a small range of green hills at Thirumalaikodi (or simply Malaikodi) Vellore in Tamil Nadu, India. It is 120 km from Tirupati, 145 km from Chennai, 160 km from Pondicherry and 200 km from Bengaluru. The Maha Kumbhabhishekam or consecration of the temple and its chief deity, Sri Lakshmi Narayani or Maha Lakshmi, the goddess of wealth, was held on 24 August 2007, and devotees from all religions and backgrounds are welcome to visit.

The salient feature of 'Thirupuram' is the Lakshmi Narayani temple whose Vimanam and Ardha Mandapam is covered with pure gold, housing the deity Sri Lakshmi Narayani (female consort/wife of Vishnu Narayana). The temple is located on 100 acres of land and has been constructed by the Vellore-based charitable trust, Sri Narayani Peedam, headed by its spiritual leader Sri Sakthi Amma also known as 'Narayani Amma'. The temple with its gold covering, has intricate work done by artisans specialising in temple art using gold. Every single detail was manually created, including converting the gold bars into gold foils and then mounting the foils on copper. Gold foil from 9 layers to 10 layers has been mounted on the etched copper plates. Every single detail in the temple art has significance from the Vedas.

Sripuram's design features a star-shaped path (Sri chakra), positioned in the middle of the lush green landscape, with a length of over 1.8 km. As one walks along this 'starp' path to reach the temple in the middle, one can also read various spiritual messages -- such as the gift of the human birth itself, and the value of spirituality -- along the way.....The Sri Narayani Hospital & Research Centre is a general hospital located near the Thirupuram temple complex and is also run by the 'Sri Narayani Peedam' Charitable Trust.
